

HUPX SPOT ONLINE TRADER TRAINING AND EXAM CONDITIONS

Application

To apply for our online trader training and exam, please send the completed and duly signed application form – in the original and as copy – to the following addresses:

the original document by post to: H-1134 Budapest, Dévai utca 26-28., Hungary
the scanned copy by email to: membership@hupx.hu

By sending the application form, payment obligation arises.

The online trader training and exam fee is € 600 + VAT / applicant.

Within 15 (fifteen) calendar days of the receipt of the application form – whichever copy arrives first – HUPX Ltd. issues and send the proforma invoice to the Partner. Payments are to be settled via bank transfer within fifteen (15) calendar days following the receipt of the proforma invoice.

The login information for the training material and exam shall be sent by email to each applicant listed on the application form within 5 (five) business days of the settlement of the total fee, along with – depending on the Partner's decision, by post or by email – the final invoice.

Trader training and exam

The training material and the exam questionnaire shall be accessible to the applicant for 30 (thirty) calendar days following the receipt of the login information. The training material includes the exam questionnaire. The exam questionnaire consists of 30 questions and has to be completed within 40 minutes after starting the exam. The exam – once started – cannot be interrupted or restarted.

The applicant may only use the training material for his/her own purposes; the training material cannot be multiplied, disseminated or made accessible to third parties.

After completing the exam, the training material shall still be accessible for the remaining time of the 30-day access period.

In case the applicant does not complete the exam within the 30-day access period provided, the exam possibility shall be forfeit. The fee cannot be refunded, the access period cannot be extended.

After completing and submitting the exam, it shall be automatically evaluated.

The applicant shall be informed about the exam result via e-mail. In case of a successful exam, HUPX Ltd. shall issue and send the trader certificate to the applicant by post, to the address of the Partner indicated on the application form.

We are happy to answer any further questions about the online trader training and exam on the following email address: membership@hupx.hu.
